PRAYER AND THANKSGIVING.

¶ The Service shall begin with these Sentences; and after them the Exhortation, Dearly beloved Brethren, &c.

PRAISE the Lord, for it is a good Thing to fing, Praises unto our God; yea, a joyful and pleasant Thing it is to be thankful. Ps. exlvii. 1.

Give Thanks unto the Lord, and call upon his Name : tell the People what Things he hath done. Pf. cv. 1.

Let them give Thanks whom the Lord hath redeemed, and delivered from the Hand of the Enemy, Ps. cvii, 2.

I Instead of Venite, exultemus.

Y fong shall be always of the loving kindness of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be shewing forth his truth, from one generation to another. Pfal. lxxxix. 1.

The

The merciful and gracious Lord bath so done his marvellous works: that they ought to be had in remembrance. Psal. exi. 4.

Who can express the noble acts of the Lord: or shew forth all his praise? Pfal. cvi. 2.

The works of the Lord are great: fought out of all them that have pleasure therein. Pfal. cxi. 2.

The Lord fetteth up the meek: and bringeth the un-godly down to the ground. Pfal. cxlvii. 6.

The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment: for all them that are oppressed with wrong. Psal. ciii. 6.

For he will not alway be chiding: neither keepeth he his anger for ever. Ver. 9.

He bath not dealt with us after our sins: nor rewarded us according to our wickedness. Ver. 10.

For look how high the heaven is in comparison of the earth: so great is his mercy toward them that fear him. Ver. 11.

Yea, like as a father pitieth his own children: even so is the Lord merciful unto them that fear him. Ver. 13.

Thou, O God, hast proved us: thou also hast tried us, even as silver is tried. Psal. lxvi. 9.

Thou sufferedst men to ride over our heads, we went through fire and water: but thou hast brought us out into a wealthy place. Psal. lxvi. 1.

Oh, how great troubles and adversities hast thou shewed us! and yet didst thou turn and refresh us: yea, and broughtest us from the deep of the earth again. Pfal. lxxi. 18.

Thou

Thou didst remember us in our low estate, and redeem us from our enemies: for thy mercy endureth for ever. Psal. exxxvi. 23, 24.

Lord, thou art become gracious unto thy land: thou hast turned away the captivity of Jacob. Pfal. lxxxv. 1.

God bath shewed us his goodness plenteously: and God bath let us see our desire upon our enemies. Psal. lix. 10.

They are brought down, and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. Pfal. xx. 8.

There are they fallen, all that work wickedness: they are cast down, and shall not be able to stand. Plal. xxxvi. 12.

The Lord hath been mindful of us, and he shall bless us: even he shall bless the house of Israel, he shall bless the house of Aaron. Psal. exv. 12.

He shall bless them that fear the Lord: both small and great. Ver. 13.

O that men would therefore praise the Lord for his goodness: and declare the wonders that he doeth for the children of men! Psal. cvii. 21.

That they would offer unto him the sucrifice of thanksgiving: and tell out his works with gladness. Ver. 22.

And not hide them from the children of the generations to come: but shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful works that he hath done, Pfal. lxxviii. 4.

That our posterity may also know them, and the children that are yet unborn: and not be as their forefathers, a faithsess and stubborn generation. Ver. 6, 9.

O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end:

but establish thou the righteous. Pfal. vii. 9.

Let all those that seek thee, be joyful and glad in thee: and let all such as love thy salvation, say alway, The Lord be praised. Psal. xl. 19.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world? without end. Amen.

¶ PROPER PSALMS, IX AND XXI.

PSALM IX. Confitebor tibi.

I WILL give thanks unto thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will speak of all thy marvellous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee: yea, my fongs will I make of thy Name, O thou most Highest.

3 While mine enemies are driven back: they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

4 For thou hast maintained my right, and my cause: thou art set in the throne, that judgest right.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, and destroyed the ungodly: thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: even as the cities which thou hast destroyed; their memorial is perished with them.

7 But

7 But the Lord shall endure for ever: he hath also prepared his seat for judgment.

8 For he shall judge the world in righteousness: and minister true judgment unto the people.

o The Lord also will be a defence for the oppressed:

even a refuge in due time of trouble.

in thee: for thou, Lord, hast never failed them that seek thee.

11 O praise the Lord which dwelleth in Sion: shew the people of his doings.

12 For when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: and forgetteth not the complaint of the poor.

13 Have mercy upon me, O Lord; consider the trouble which I suffer of them that hate me: thou that liftest me up from the gates of death;

14 That I may shew all thy praises within the ports of the daughter of Sion: I will rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The heathen are funk down in the pit that they made: in the same net which they hid privily, is their foot taken.

16 The Lord is known to execute judgment: the ungodly is trapped in the work of his own hands.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell: and all the people that forget God.

18. For the poor shall not alway be forgotten: the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish for ever.

19 Up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand:

20 Put

20 Put them in fear, O Lord: that the heathen may know themselves to be but men.

PSALM XXI. Domine, in virtute tua.

THE King shall rejoice in thy strength, O Lord: exceeding glad shall he be of thy salvation.

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire: and hast not denied him the request of his lips.

3 For thou shalt prevent him with the blessings of goodness: and shalt set a crown of pure gold upon his head.

4 He asked life of thee, and thou gavest him a long life: even for ever and ever.

5 His honour is great in thy falvation: glory and great worship shalt thou lay upon him.

6 For thou shalt give him everlasting felicity: and make him glad with the joy of thy countenance.

7 And why? because the King putteth his trust in the Lord: and in the mercy of the most Highest he shall not miscarry.

8 All thine enemies shall feel thy hand: thy right hand shall find out them that hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them like a fiery oven in time of thy wrath: the Lord shall destroy them in his displeasure, and the fire shall consume them.

10 Their fruit shall thou root out of the earth: and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended mischief against thee: and imaginated such a device as they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou put them to flight: and the strings strings of thy bow shalt thou make ready against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, Lord, in thine own strength: so will we sing, and praise thy power.

¶ First Lesson. Isaiah, xxxi. 1 to 4. and xxxvii. 21 to 36.

O to them that go down to Egypt for help, and stay on horses, and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong: but they look not unto the holy One of Israel, neither seek the Lord.

2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evil doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.

3 Now the Egyptians are men and not God, and their horses slesh and not spirit; when the Lord shall stretch out his hands, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together.

21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria:

cerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion hath defpised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

23 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and listed up thine eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.

24 By thy fervants hast thou reproached the Lord, and hast said, By the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the fides of Lebanon, and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of this border, and the forest of his Carmel.

of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the befreged places.

26 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps.

27 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

28 But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

29 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult is come up into mine ears: therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

year such as groweth of itself: and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.

31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah, shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.

32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the Zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this.

33 Therefore

33 Therefore thus faith the Lord concerning the king of Affyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it.

34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, faith the Lord.

35 For I will defend this city to fave it, for mine own fake, and for my fervant David's fake.

I Te Deum laudamus,

WE praise thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee: the Father everlasting.
To thee all Angels cry aloud: the Heavens, and all the Powers therein.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin: continually do cry, Holy, Holy, Holy: Lord God of Sabaoth:

Heaven and Earth are full of the Majesty: of thy Glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee. The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.

The noble army of Martyrs: praise thee.

The Holy Church throughout all the world : doth ac-Knowledge thee;

The Father: of an infinite Majesty;
Thine honorable, true: and only Son;

Also the Holy Ghost: the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory: O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son: of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death: thou didst open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

Thou fittest at the right hand of God: in the Glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come: to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy fervants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with thy Saints: in Glory everlasting.

O Lord, fave thy people: and blefs thine heritage.

Govern them: and lift them up for ever.

Day by day: we magnify thee;

And we worship thy Name: ever world without end. Vouchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us. O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

A Second Lesson. St. Mathew, v. 1 to 17.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him.

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, faying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the king-dom of heaven.

4 Bleffed are they that mourn: for they shall be com-

5 Bleffed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled. 7 Blessed

7 Bleffed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Bleffed are the pure in heart : for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peace-makers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Bleffed are they which are perfecuted for righteouf-ness sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

fecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsly for my sake:

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the falt of the earth: but if the falt have lost his favour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is fet on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

I Instead of the Jubilate.

If the Lord had not been on our fide, now may we fay: if the Lord himself had not been on our fide, when men rose up against us;

They had swallowed us up quick: when they were so wrathfully displeased at us.

Yea,

Yea, the waters had drowned us, and the stream had gone over our soul: the deep waters of the proud had gone over our soul.

But praised be the Lord: who hath not given us over as a prey unto them.

The Lord hath wrought: a mighty falvation for us.

We gat not this by our own sword, neither was it our own arm that saved us: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto us.

The Lord hath appeared for us: the Lord hath covered our heads, and made us to stand in the day of battle.

The Lord hath appeared for us: the Lord hath overthrown our enemies, and dashed in pieces those that rose up against us.

Therefore not unto us, O Lord, not unto us: but unto thy Name be given the glory.

The Lord hath done great things for us: the Lord hath done great things for us, for which we rejoice.

Our help standeth in the Name of the Lord : who hath made heaven and earth.

Blessed be the Name of the Lord: from this time forth

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:

world without end. Amen.

Then the Creed, &c. to the Prayer for the King's Majesty, instead of which this Collect for the protection of the King against his Enemies.

MOST

OST gracious God, who hast set thy Servant GEORGE our King upon the throne of his Ancestors; We most humbly beseech thee to protect him on the same from all the dangers to which he may be exposed; hide him from the gathering together of the froward, and from the insurrection of wicked doers: Do thou weaken the hands, blast the designs, and deseat the enterprizes of all his enemies; that no secret Conspiracies, nor open Violences, may disquiet his Reign; but that being safely kept under the shadow of thy Wing, and supported by thy Power, he may triumph over all Oppesition, that so the world may acknowledge Thee to be his Desender and mighty Deliverer in all Dissiputities and Adversities, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I A Prayer for the Royal Family.

ALMIGHTY God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly befeech thee to bless our gracious Queen CHARLOTTE, His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, the Princess of Wales, and all the Royal Family: Endue them with thy Holy Spirit; enrich them with thy heavenly grace; prosper them with all happiness; and bring them to thine everlasting kingdom, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Clergy and People.

A LMIGHTY and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels; Send down upon our Bishops and Curates, and all Congregations committed to their Charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing.

bleffing. Gant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediator, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In the Time of War and Tumults.

ALMIGHTY God, King of all Kings, and Governor of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whom it belongeth justly to punish Sinners, and to be merciful to them that truly repent; Save and deliver us, we humbly beseech Thee, from the hands of our enemies; abate their pride, assuge their malice, and confound their devices; that we, being armed with thy defence, may be preserved evermore from all perils, to glorify thee, who art the only giver of all victory, through the merits of thy only Scn Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Collect, or Prayer, for all Conditions of Men, to be used at such Times when the Litany is not appointed to be said.

GOD, the Creator and preferver of all mankind, we humbly befeech thee for all forts and conditions of men, that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them; thy saving health unto all Nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholick Church; that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians, may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally, we commend to thy satherly goodness, all those who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate; that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them according to their several necessities; giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

I A Prayer that may be faid after any of the former.

GOD, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us, for the honour of Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

¶ For Peace and Deliverance from our Enemies

ALMIGHTY God, who art a strong tower of defence unto thy servants against the face of their enemies; We yield thee praise and thanksgiving for our deliverance from those great and apparent dangers wherewith we were compassed. We acknowledge it thy goodness, that we were not delivered over as a prey unto them; beseeching thee still to continue such thy mercies towards us, that all the world may know that thou art our Saviour and mighty Deliverer, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I For restoring Public Peace at Home.

O ETERNAL God, our heavenly Father, who alone makest men to be of one mind in a house, and stillest the outrage of a violent and unruly people; We bless thy holy Name, that it hath pleased thee to appease the seditious tumults which have been lately raised up amongst us; most humbly beseeching thee to grant to all of us grace, that we may henceforth obediently walk in thy holy commandments; and leading a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, may continually offer unto thee our facrifice of praise and thanksgiving for these thy mercies towards us, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

I A General Thanksgiving.

LMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy fervants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men: [particularly for those National Blessings which we this day commemorate, for the happy Deliverance of His Majesty's Dominions in Europe, as well as of the British Possessions in India, from the destructive designs of the Enemy; and for the fignal interposition of thy good Providence manifested, By the blesting recently bestowed on the energy and valour of the Naval and Military Forces of His Majesty and of His Allies, in various parts of the Globe, as well as BY the prosperous issue of the late just and necessary War in Mysoor; BY the conclusion and settlement of Peace in the Peninsula of India; and BY the ultimate establishment of the tranquillity and security of the British Possessions in this Country.] We blefs thee for our creation, prefervation, and all the bleffings of this life: but above all, for thine ineftimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourfelves:

us,

felves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chryfostom.

A LMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace, at this time, with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2. Cor. xiii. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the sellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

COMMUNION.

¶ A Prayer for the King as Supreme Governor of this Church.

DLESSED Lord, who hast called Christian Princes to the Defence of thy Faith, and hast made it their Duty to promote the Spiritual Welfare, together with the Temporal Interest of their People; We acknowledge with humble and thankful hearts thy great goodness to us, in fetting thy Servant, our most gracious King, over this Church and Nation: Give him, we befeech thee, all those heavenly graces that are requisite for so high a Trust; Let the work of thee his God prosper in his Hand; Let his Eyes behold the Success of his Designs for the Service of thy true Religion established amongst us; And make him a bleffed Inftrument of protecting and advancing thy Truth, where-ever it is persecuted and oppressed: Let Hypocrify and Profaneness, Superstition and Idolatry, fly before his Face; Let not Herefies and false Doctrines disturb the Peace of the Church, nor Schisms and causeless Divisions weaken it; but grant us to be of one heart and one mind in ferving thee our God, and obeying him according to thy Will. And that these bleffings may be continued to after-ages, Let there never be One wanting in his House to succeed him in the Government of these Kingdoms; that our Posterity may see his Children's Children, and Peace upon Ifrael. So we that are thy People, and Sheep of thy Pasture, shall give thee thanks for ever, and will always be shewing forth thy praise from generation to generation. Amen.

THE COLLECT.

GRANT, O Lord, we befeech thee, that the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by thy governance, that thy Church may joyfully serve thee in all godly quietness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The Epistle. 1 St. Pet. iii. 8.

BE ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:

not

not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing; but contrariwife, bleffing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a bleffing. For he that will love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile. Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the sace of the Lord is against them that do evil. And who is he that will harm you, if yeb: sollowers of that which is good?

The Gospel. St. Matth. vii. 15 to 21.

BEWARE of false prophets, which come to you in sheeps clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits: Do men gather grapes of thorns, or sigs of thisses? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit: but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit: neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down and cast into the sire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.
